PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

February 23, 2022

OPERATIONAL NOTICE: REOPENING OF THE FRANK O. HEINTZ HEARING ROOM

Effective Wednesday, May 4, 2022, the Commission will resume holding in-person hearings in the Frank O. Heintz Hearing Room, on the 16th Floor of the William Donald Schaefer Tower, 6 St. Paul Street, Baltimore, Maryland.¹

This change does not apply to cases and hearings in the Public Utility Law Judge Division, typically held in the 19th Floor Hearing Room. The Public Utility Law Judge Division will issue guidance regarding its hearings at a future time.

Effective May 4, 2022, all individuals who wish to actively participate in hearings held in the Frank O. Heintz Hearing Room must do so in-person. The Commission will not accommodate any requests for virtual participation.

The Commission will also ask all parties to limit hearing attendance to individuals who are expected to speak or appear before the Commission and any necessary support personnel. Hearing participants will remain subject to all relevant public health guidelines. Individuals who only wish to watch hearings should continue to do so via the Commission's YouTube channel.²

The Commission may issue further details regarding the reopening of the Frank O. Heintz Hearing Room closer to the date of its reopening.

Any questions concerning this Notice shall be directed to the Office of the Executive Secretary.

By Direction of the Commission,

/s/ Andrew S. Johnston

Andrew S. Johnston
Executive Secretary

¹ As such, effective May 4, 2022, individuals will not need to register in advance to participate in the weekly Administrative Meeting.
