MEANINGFUL CONNECTIONS

Enough with virtual connections. Making real connections is what gives life meaning. Like stealing away, just the two of you, to remember why you became “us.” Or dining whenever and with whom you like, as new friends become old friends overnight. All this as you sail the world, communing with nature and its exotic creatures in the most awe-inspiring locales, and being served by a consummate team that seems to read your mind and anticipate every need. That’s connection on a whole new level.

UNEXPECTED DISCOVERY

When was your last “never before” experience? Prepare for a voyage filled with them; things you’ve never seen before, done before, tasted, or been so moved by before. Explore the ruins of the ancient Greek theater in Taormina with stunning views of Mt. Etna in the distance. Discover the scent of wild maquis and feel of fine sand between your toes in Corsica. Or mingle with soothsayers, acrobats, and snake charmers in magical Marrakech. Aboard our smaller, more intimate ships, you’ll immerse in the nature, local culture and history of fascinating destinations and deepen your appreciation of the world’s wonders.

Marquee Cities and Boutique Ports

LIFE-EXPANDING MOMENTS

There are moments in life that affect you deeply, changing you forever. Like standing in the sacred site where the Olympic Games began. Or experiencing a world of exotic spices at a bustling Turkish Bazaar guided by a professional chef. Or enjoying the ultimate private cocktail party with a live orchestra and the ancient ruins of Ephesus as your magical backdrop. This is what a Seabourn voyage does: it opens our eyes and hearts, inspiring us to lead the largest life possible.

ACTIVE LUXURY

Luxury today isn't something you simply look at; it's something you experience. Imagine taking off in a kayak right from the back of the ship to transform a marina into your own private playground, complete with the best water toys. Our array of shore excursions are curated to suit a wide range of activity levels so you're confident stepping, hiking, or rowing out of your comfort zone to try something new.

ROME, ITALY

MEDITERRANEAN FEATURED PORTS

LAS PALMAS, CANARY ISLANDS, SPAIN

An exotic mix of Spanish and African cultures, with touches of the New World, this island city is home to the Museo Canaria; beautiful beaches; the fascinating Elder Museum of Science and Technology; and the UNESCO World Heritage section of town, La Vegueta, and its nearby shops and cafés.

CASABLANCA, MOROCCO

Morocco's largest city and main commercial hub fuses Arab-Muslim heritage and colonial influences with a bold modernity. Wander its maze-like medina and admire the downtown's mix of Moorish architecture and French Art Deco design. The landmark Hassan II Mosque, dominated by its 688-foot-high minaret and built partially over water, accommodates an astounding 100,000 worshippers.

PALAMÓS, SPAIN

Located at the foot of the mountains on Spain's rugged Costa Brava, Palamós boasts seven superb beaches, Iberian archaeological remains from the year 6 BC, and the Church of Sant Esteve on the beach. Highlighting the town center is its 16th-century cathedral.

MÁLAGA (GRANADA), SPAIN

Málaga, renowned as Picasso's birthplace and celebrated for its wine and distinct flamenco, is a testament to southern Spain's diverse heritage. Traces of its Phoenician settlers persist, and majestic Moorish fortresses bear witness to its storied past. Nearby, Granada weaves its own tale with a rich blend of Moorish and Christian influences, crowned by the majestic Alhambra overseeing the city.

LAS PALMAS, CANARY ISLANDS, SPAIN

PORTOFINO, ITALY

Portofino is a popular, picturesque resort village on the Italian Riviera, favored by artists and travelers for its breathtaking views of villas arrayed like an immense, colorful amphitheatre on steep slopes above a cerulean bay.

ST. TROPEZ, FRANCE

The modern glamour never really deserts this town famous for Bardot and a film festival, but the venerable village perché of Grimaud in the nearby Maures Massif has an 11th-century Grimaud castle with links to Monaco's ruling Grimaldis.

PALMA DE MALLORCA, SPAIN

Spain's sunny Mediterranean outpost is a pleasant spot boasting a shady plaza near the Gothic cathedral. Perhaps journey to the enchanting village of Valldemossa, but leave time to shop for false (but lovely) Majorica pearls and handmade lace.

AMALFI, ITALY≈

One of the two main towns on the famed Amalfi Drive, Amalfi is known for its stunning beaches, majestic Duomo di Sant'Andrea cathedral, colorful Majolica tiles, the Chiostro del Paradiso cloister gardens, and the Museo della Carta where you can make paper using the traditional medieval methods.

VALLETTA, MALTA

Diversity thrives in Malta, which has been occupied by the Phoenicians, Greeks, Carthaginians, Romans, Arabs, French, and British throughout history. Valletta, the current-day capital echoes a rich past that includes the St. John's Co-Cathedral and Museum, Palace of the Grand Masters, and many fortifications.

≈Marina Days are weather and conditions permitting and is available in select destinations.

GIBRALTAR, BRITISH OVERSEAS TERRITORY

Fabled to be one of the Pillars of Hercules that marked the edge of the world, "The Rock" of Gibraltar is a towering monolith of limestone and marble with natural caves, manmade tunnels, and geological significance. Its position between Africa and Europe makes for a fascinating history.

CARTAGENA (MURCIA), SPAIN

In the 3rd century BC, the Romans seized the rich harbor town of Cartagena from Carthage in a famous battle. The 2,000-year-old amphitheatre, an altar to Jupiter, and other ruins remain alongside colonial architecture, grand museums, military forts and castles, and other monuments to history.

VALENCIA, SPAIN

Located in Europe's most dense agricultural region, Valencia was originally a Greek settlement, before being turned into a retirement village for Roman soldiers in 138 BC. Later, the Moors controlled the land before and after El Cid, before it permanently became part of Spain in the 15th century.

BONIFACIO, CORSICA, FRANCE

The scent of wild maquis carries to the island of Corsica, birthplace of Napoleon Bonaparte. Bonifacio and its medieval citadel perch atop the southern coast's limestone cliffs; wander the old town's cobblestone streets and piazzas abuzz with craft shops, bars and brasseries. Fine-sand beaches and hidden pirate coves are plentiful.

BONIFACIO, CORSICA, FRANCE

PORTOFERRAIO, ELBA, ITALY

Though small, Elba has been known since the beginnings of recorded history – prized by empire after empire for its rich soil and abundance of minerals and gems. Napoleon’s famous exile in the 1800s still bears signs of his stay here, yet the largely agricultural island is serene and timeless.

PORTOVENERE (CINQUE TERRE), ITALY

The “Golfo dei Poeti,” inspired Dante, Petrarch, Byron, and Shelley with ancient houses and a dominant 12th-century citadel. Explore the grotto where Byron pondered, or climb the castle beside St. Peter’s church for a view of the Cinque Terre villages.

LA CIOTAT, FRANCE

With its quintessential French Riviera atmosphere, La Ciotat was actually the original cinema hot-spot on the Côte d’Azur, well before Cannes and St. Tropez. Besides gorgeous beaches, it is home to the first commercial film in history and the birthplace of color photography.

GOLFO ARANCI, SARDINIA, ITALY≈

The Sardinian coastline is serrated by deep-cut coves of sparkling sea, surrounded by rocky prominences, and edged in lovely strands of beach. The Aga Khan fell in love with the place, and dubbed it the Costa Smeralda, creating a magnet for the global glitterati, who adore its silvery white sands.

ROSAS (ROSES), SPAIN

This port town along Spain’s sunny Costa Brava is as pretty as the flower for which it is named. Explore its 16th-century castle, visit the buzzy fish market, and discover golden-sand beaches and hidden coves galore. Nearby lie the megalithic dolmen of Creu d’en Cobertella and Greco-Roman archaeological site of Empúries.

MARINA GRANDE, ISOLA DI CAPRI, ITALY

Colorful fishing boats line this busy little port, entry to the fabled isle of Capri. Travelers since Homer’s Odysseus have been enchanted by its rugged landscape, turquoise waters and ethereal Blue Grotto. Stroll the town of Capri’s narrow alleyways lined with exclusive boutiques, or just sit in the central piazza and soak in the charm.

ADRIATIC & GREEK ISLES

FEATURED PORTS

MONEMVASIA, GREECE≈

Its name means 'one entrance' and this tall isle has only one way in. Honeycombed with grottoes, narrow alleys and rock-carved rooms, the narrow pathways lead up to the Byzantine Agia Sophia church, and a medieval fortress and walls.

VODICE (ŠIBENIK), CROATIA

Among the familiar red-tiled roofs of the Dalmatian Coast, you'll find the towers and manors from the 17th century, the Parish Church of St. Cross from 1746, the old Church of St. Cross from 1402, and the Church of St. Elijah from 1298. Roman ruins date back even further, to around 160 BC.

SÁMI, CEPHALONIA, GREECE≈

This lovely harbor on Cephalonia is close to Antisamos beach, the setting for the film Captain Corelli's Mandolin; the ethereal beauty of the underground lake in Melissani Cave; and to the ruins of ancient Sámi, occupied for millennia.

LIMASSOL, CYPRUS

Along with ten miles of meandering shoreline, Limassol features mountain villages, castles and basilicas; ancient archaeological sites dating back to 7,000 BC; vineyards; an upscale marina town with friendly restaurants; and chic fashion and jewelry boutiques.

AGIOS NIKÓLAOS, CRETE, GREECE

This major resort town in Crete is a tale of two waters, the seas of Mirabello Bay and the island's famous Lake Voulismeni. Both waterfronts are lined with cafés, shops, and sunny beaches. Walk around town to discover statues to Greek mythology, local olive oil, and folk art.

≈Marina Days are weather and conditions permitting and is available in select destinations.

MYKONOS, GREECE

CHANIA, GREECE

Chania is a land of exotic beauty and sandy beaches at the foot of imposing mountains. Large caves, rivers, lush green plains, and rich flora and fauna surround the harbor and its old-meets-new mix of Venetian fortifications from the 1500s and modern buildings and storefronts.

MYKONOS, NISOS MYKONOS, GREECE

This quintessential Greek island is known for its whitewashed houses, domed churches, windmills and dashes of bright blue from doors, shutters, window frames, and the sea and sky. Explore the colorful harbor on foot, or hop on a scooter to cruise by beaches, bistros and shops.

ÇESME, TURKEY

As a destination that's off the typical tourist path, Çeşme has a quiet authenticity in its charm. Uncrowded beaches, rolling fields of olive trees, bougainvillea-lined streets, hot springs, local art, a medieval castle, and other historic sites all wait to welcome you.

ISTANBUL, TURKEY

Byzantium's domes and minarets are unmistakable. This is the Golden Horn, the door between East and West. Hagia Sophia, the Blue Mosque, and Topkapi Sarai await—as does the Grand Bazaar, laden with carpets, beaten brass, and spices from afar.

IZMIR (PERGAMON), TURKEY

The birthplace of the epic poet Homer, Izmir has grown into a thriving metropolis with a sweeping bayfront. Museums of archaeology and ethnography, and the remnants of ancient Smyrna's 4th-century fort atop Mt. Pagos are interesting glimpses into the city's rich past.

ITEA (DELPHI), GREECE

This quiet seaside town serves as gateway to the archaeological site of Delphi, which ancient Greeks deemed the center of the world. Head up Mt. Parnassus's steep slopes to the Temple of Apollo, where the city's famous oracle delivered her divine prophesies. Explore the 4th-century amphitheater and other impressive ruins.

PÁTAMOS, NISOS PÁTAMOS, GREECE≈

According to myth, Artemis and Apollo entreated to Zeus to raise Pátmos from the sea. A natural haven of unspoiled beaches and green hills overlooking the beautiful Aegean sea, it is a UNESCO World Heritage Site important to Christian history. A monastery overlooks a cave believed to be where the biblical "Book of Revelations" was written.

SKÍATHOS, NISOS SKÍATHOS, GREECE≈

Skíathos is a popular Sporades island blessed with forests, fruit and olive orchards, and vineyards. Its 60 beaches include the famous Koukounaries and remote Lalaria with its picturesque rock arch.

SANTORÍNI, GREECE

Santoríni's anchorage, between sheer walls of a collapsed volcanic caldera, is an iconic Greek isles harbor. Ascend to Thira, the gleaming white town at the top, or continue to atmospheric Oia for breathtaking views.

SYMI, GREECE

Tucked into a rocky cove, Symi is framed by colorful neoclassical houses with stairs to the upper towns of Ano Symi and Kastro. The Monastery of Archangel Michael with its elaborate bell tower is a major highlight, as are dozens of other churches, chapels and a Dove of Peace war memorial.

KUŞADASI (EPHESUS), TURKEY

This Turkish town is a gateway for Ephesus, renowned in antiquity. The ornate Library of Celsus, the Temple of Artemis (Diana) and the Theater, where Paul addressed the Ephesians, are all connected by shining marble streets.

CANAKKALE (TROY), TURKEY

The Turkish port city played a pivotal role in everything from the Greek myth of the Golden Fleece to the Gallipoli campaign of World War I. It serves as your portal back in time to ancient Troy, setting for the epic Trojan War of Homer's Iliad. Wander the expansive ruins and climb inside a replica of its infamous wooden horse.

≈Marina Days are weather and conditions permitting and is available in select destinations.

GALLIPOLI, ITALY

KOPER, SLOVENIA

Formerly an island port with Greek, Roman, and Byzantine ties — and once the most influential city in the Venetian Empire — the Golden Age of Koper can still be found in the cobblestone streets of an Old Town which boasts a wealth of architecture, cultural monuments, and intriguing shops.

HVAR, CROATIA

From the 12th through 18th centuries, Hvar served as the harbor for the Venetian fleet, and fortifications from this time period still exist today. Modern Hvar is a quiet sailing and fishing town with winding streets, a huge piazza, and vineyards and lavender fields on the hillsides.

KOTOR, MONTENEGRO

A cluster of medieval towns hug the sinuous shores of the Bay of Kotor. Winding picturesquely between two looming massifs, it is one of Europe's most breathtaking harbors. Together, they comprise a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

ZAKINTHOS, GREECE

Famous for its isolated "Shipwreck Beach," which is accessible only by boat, this seaside is dotted by breathtaking rock arches and other stone formations that appear to float in the water. The harbor town and its Venetian castle offer panoramic views of both the sea and city.

GALLIPOLI, ITALY

Italy's boot heel is home to one of the prettiest baroque towns in the entire Puglia region. A 13th-century castle dominates Gallipoli's historic center, set on a small island off the mainland. Must-sees include its 3rd-century Greek fountain and the elaborately decorated Cathedral of Sant'Agata.
