COMMISSIONER’S FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND ORDER

I. FINDINGS OF FACT

A. Respondents and Related Parties

12. Allstate Financial Services, LLC (“Allstate”) has a home office address of 2920 South 84th Street, Lincoln, Nebraska 68506. Allstate has been a Missouri registered broker-dealer since November 15, 1994, with a Central Registration Depository (“CRD”) number of 18272.

13. Andrews is a 30-year-old Missouri resident with an address of 2617 Paula Drive, West Plains, Missouri 65775. Andrews was a Missouri registered broker-dealer agent with Allstate from May 15, 2013 through May 1, 2015, with a CRD number of 6196235.
14. Chadwick is a 63-year-old Missouri resident with an address of 1301 County Road 6020, West Plains, Missouri 65775. Chadwick was a Missouri registered broker-dealer agent with Allstate from June 25, 2010 through July 31, 2015, with a CRD number of 3139436.

B. Enforcement Section Investigation

15. In December 2013, Chadwick was attempting to transfer assets of a West Plains, Missouri resident (“MR”) to Allstate. MR was 79 years-old at the time.
16. MR’s son (“KA”) had a power of attorney over MR, but had been unsuccessful in obtaining copies of account statements from another Missouri registered broker-dealer (“Broker-Dealer”) where MR’s assets were held.
17. Chadwick directed Andrews to obtain MR’s account statements from the Broker-Dealer.
18. On five occasions between December 16, 2013 and December 18, 2013, Andrews called the Broker-Dealer and falsely claimed to be MR’s relative in an effort to obtain MR’s account statements.
19. On December 17, 2013, KA submitted an online complaint to the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) that alleged that the Broker-Dealer had refused to provide KA with MR’s account statements.
20. On March 11, 2014, Andrews called FINRA’s Office of Fraud Detection and Market Intelligence and attempted to obtain information about the status of the complaint.
21. During the call with FINRA, Andrews falsely claimed that she was KA’s daughter.
22. The Broker-Dealer ultimately provided KA with the requested documents after determining that KA had a valid power of attorney to act on behalf of MR.
23. After Chadwick and Andrews learned that FINRA was investigating Andrews’ claim that Andrews was MR’s relative, a plan was devised to provide FINRA with false information.
24. According to the plan, Andrews would testify to FINRA that Andrews had only stated that Andrews was “like” KA’s daughter during the telephone calls with the Broker-Dealer.

25. During Andrews' on-the-record testimony with FINRA ("Andrews OTR") on October 29, 2014, Andrews testified that she had not claimed to be MR's relative during the telephone calls, and had instead said that she was "like" KA's daughter.
26. To support Andrews' claim that she was "like" KA's daughter, Andrews testified that she had known KA since 2006.
27. In addition, in her April 21, 2014 written response to a request for documents and information made by FINRA, Andrews claimed that KA was like her part-time father, and that KA and KA's wife had unofficially adopted her.
28. In fact, Andrews never had a close personal relationship with KA, and she first became acquainted with KA in late 2013 in a professional capacity.
29. During Chadwick's on-the-record testimony with FINRA ("Chadwick OTR") on February 23, 2015, Chadwick, aware that Andrews had claimed to be MR's relative, repeated the false claim that Andrews had said that she was "like" KA's daughter during the telephone calls.
30. MR passed away on December 26, 2014.
31. On May 17, 2016, Andrews entered into an Acceptance, Waiver and Consent Agreement ("Andrews AWC") with FINRA which was accepted by FINRA on June 14, 2016. The Andrews AWC sets forth that Andrews accepted and consented to findings, without admitting or denying the findings, that by falsely claiming to be a relative of a customer in an effort to obtain account documents and to obtain the status of a complaint submitted to FINRA, Andrews violated FINRA Rule 2010, and by making false statements during the Andrews OTR and written response, Andrews violated FINRA Rules 8210 and 2010. Andrews consented to the imposition of a bar from associating with any FINRA member in any capacity.
32. On June 21, 2016, Chadwick entered into an Acceptance, Waiver and Consent Agreement ("Chadwick AWC") with FINRA which was accepted by FINRA on July 14, 2016. The Chadwick AWC sets forth that Chadwick accepted and consented to findings, without admitting or denying the findings, that by false on-the-record testimony or written responses to FINRA, Chadwick violated FINRA Rules 8210 and 2010, and by making misleading statements during her on-the-record testimony, Chadwick violated FINRA rules 8210 and 2010. Chadwick consented to the imposition of a bar from associating with any FINRA member in any capacity.

II. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

33. The Commissioner concludes that Respondents engaged in dishonest and unethical practices while registered as broker-dealer agents in violation of Section 409.4-412(d)(13), and that this constitutes grounds to discipline Respondents under Section 409.4-412.

34. The Commissioner, after consideration of the stipulations set forth above and on the consent of the Respondents and the Enforcement Section, finds and concludes that the Commissioner has jurisdiction over the Respondents in this matter and that the following Order is in the public interest, necessary for the protection of public investors, and consistent with the purposes intended by Chapter 409, RSMo.

III. ORDER

NOW THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered that:

1. Respondents, their agents, employees and servants, and all other persons participating in or about to participate in the above-described violations with knowledge of this Order are permanently enjoined and restrained from engaging in dishonest or unethical practices in violation of Section 409.4-412(d)(13); and
2. Respondents are hereby BARRED from registering as a broker-dealer, investment adviser, broker-dealer agent or investment adviser representative in the State of Missouri.

SO ORDERED:
