8 CSR 60-1.010 General Organization

Original authority: 213.020, RSMo 1959, amended 1986, 1992, 1998 and 536.023, RSMo 1975, amended 1976, 1997, 2004.*

PURPOSE: This rule describes the general organization of the commission and the methods and procedures people may use to obtain information about it, as required by section 536.023, RSMo.

(1) The purpose of the commission is to eliminate and prevent discrimination in housing because of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, disability, or familial status. The commission also is empowered to eliminate and prevent discrimination in employment because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, disability, or age. The commission also is empowered to eliminate and prevent discrimination in public accommodations because of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, or disability. Because of the overriding public concern in eliminating discriminatory practices, the commission shall have jurisdiction over all persons, public or private, except those specifically exempted by law.

(2) The commission has the powers, duties, and functions to enforce Chapter 213, RSMo. The commission has created the position of executive director to organize a staff to aid the commission in the enforcement of its statutory power. The staff shall aid the commission in investigation and conciliation and in preparation of cases for hearing so that the commission's work will be performed in a manner consistent with its prescribed purpose of eliminating discriminatory practices in this state.

(3) The general public may obtain information about the commission or make submissions to the commission at any of the commission offices.

(4) The commission holds periodic meetings, which are open to the public, in the various congressional districts representative of the commission membership. Notice of these meetings appears in the public press, by mail to persons requesting this notice, and as provided by section 610.020, RSMo.
