

UNITED NATIONS INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON VICTIMS OF TERRORISM

SAVE THE DATE

8-9 OCTOBER, 2024 • VITORIA-GASTEIZ, SPAIN

The United Nations Office of Counter-Terrorism and the Kingdom of Spain are pleased to announce they will co-host the International Conference on Victims of Terrorism in the city of Vitoria-Gasteiz, Spain, on 8 and 9 October 2024.

Organized in follow-up to the United Nations Global Congress of Victims of Terrorism of September 2022, the International Conference will bring together Member States, experts, practitioners and victims of terrorism to discuss the role of education in supporting the rights and needs of victims and survivors of terrorism and contributing to preventing and countering violent extremism and terrorism.

An invitation, with a link to register and a programme, will be circulated soon.
