8 March 2022

Excellency,

In accordance with the mandate of the Peacebuilding Commission, as articulated in A/RES/60/180 and S/RES/1645 (2005); A/RES/70/262 and S/RES/2282(2016); as well as A/RES/75/201 and S/RES/2558 (2020), I wish to share with the Security Council the provisional programme of work of the Peacebuilding Commission for 2022. In an effort to ensure effective implementation of the programme of work, including by enhancing the predictability of the Commission's calendar and ensuring timely advice to the Security Council in respect of S/RES/2594 (2021), and with a view of providing, upon request of the Council, an advice that can complement the content of reports of the Secretary-General, the Commission would appreciate receiving the advanced unedited versions of the reports of the Secretary-General to the Security Council throughout the year on the following countries and issues considered by the PBC:

- Central African Republic;
- The Situation in Mali;
- Activities of the United Nations Office for West Africa and the Sahel;
- United Nations Verification Mission in Colombia;
- Situation in South Sudan;
- United Nations Organization Stabilization Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo;
- The situation in Central Africa and the activities of the United Nations Regional Office for Central Africa;
- Joint Force of the Group of Five for the Sahel;
- Implementation of the Peace, Security and Cooperation Framework for the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Region;

H.E. Mrs. Lana Zaki Nusseibeh
President of the Security Council
United Nations

- Promotion of durable peace and sustainable development in Africa;
- Strengthening the partnership between the United Nations and the African Union on issues of peace and security in Africa, including on the work of the United Nations Office to the African Union;
- Women and peace and security; and
- Youth, peace and security.

I look forward to our continued collaboration to further strengthening the advisory role of the Peacebuilding Commission.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Rabab Fatima
Chairperson
Peacebuilding Commission
