A. INTRODUCTION

Establishment of the Trusteeship Council

The Trusteeship Council, one of the six principal organs of the United Nations, is established by Article 86 of the Charter of the United Nations. The Council consists of the following Members of the United Nations: (a) those Members administering Trust Territories; (b) such of those Members mentioned by name in Article 23 of the Charter of the United Nations as are not administering Trust Territories; and (c) as many other Members elected for three-year terms by the General Assembly as may be necessary to ensure that the total number of members of the Trusteeship Council is equally divided between those Members of the United Nations which administer Trust Territories and those which do not.

After the approval of the first Trusteeship Agreements by the General Assembly at its sixty-second plenary meeting, 13 December 1946, the conditions necessary for the constitution of the Trusteeship Council could be fulfilled. Thus, in accordance with Article 86a of the Charter, Australia, Belgium, France, New Zealand and the United Kingdom became members of the Council. By application of Article 86b, China, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America became members of the Council. In compliance with Article 86c, the General Assembly periodically elects non-administering members for a term of three years.

As a result of the entry into force of the Trusteeship Agreement for the Pacific Islands^{1/}, on 18 July 1947, the United States of America was entrusted with the administration of a Trust Territory, and, in order therefore to ensure that the total number of members of the Council was equally divided between those Members of the United Nations which administer Trust Territories and those which do not, the General Assembly, at its one hundred and ninth plenary meeting, 13 November 1947, elected two other non-administering members, thus increasing their number to four.

The General Assembly adopted the Trusteeship Agreement for the Territory of Somaliland under Italian administration^{2/} on 2 December 1950. Consequently, the Trusteeship Council, at its eighth session, approved supplementary rules of procedure regulating the participation of Italy as the Administering Authority, and the participation of States Members of the Advisory Council for the Trust Territory of Somaliland under Italian administration (but not members of the Trusteeship Council) in the sessions of the Council at which the reports of the Administering Authority or petitions relating to the Trust Territory are considered.^{3/}

The Trusteeship Council also adopted resolution 310 (VIII)^{4/} requesting the General Assembly to include in the agenda of its sixth regular session the question of the full participation of Italy in the work of the Trusteeship Council.
