End of Summer Fun At WonderWorks Destiny! WonderWorks Invites Local Families to a Back 2 School Bash and a State Fair Celebration.

SYRACUSE, New York – (August 7, 2024) – While Central New York families are gearing up to head back to school, WonderWorks Destiny reminds them that there is still plenty of time to soak up the summer. WonderWorks is hosting a Back 2 School Bash from August 16-18, 2024, where all Central New York residents are eligible to get in on a weekend of fun with VIP admission for only $20 plus tax. This is the perfect opportunity for families to enjoy an exciting outing together before going back to school.

“Summer fun is our specialty here at WonderWorks, so we’re excited to offer a special discounted weekend for locals!” said Jon Cascella, general manager at WonderWorks Destiny. “Gather your friends and family for our upcoming Back 2 School Bash.”

The event will be filled with plenty of educational fun and memory making opportunities. The VIP Combo ticket includes full access to everything WonderWorks Destiny has to offer, including interactive exhibits, laser tag, and one climb on the Canyon Climb Ropes Course. The fan-favorite ropes challenge is the World’s Largest Suspended Indoor Ropes Course, spanning across three levels of ropes over the Canyon area of Destiny USA mall. Guests will be challenged as they encounter over 81 different obstacles. Closed toe shoes and proper dress are required for all guests to take on the ropes course.

To get a mobile coupon for the upcoming Back 2 School Bash, guests must text B2SCNY to 73028. Then they must present the mobile coupon and proof of residency at the WonderWorks admissions counter upon arrival to purchase the tickets. The special $20 admission rate is available to all those who live in Central New York.

“Prepare your kids for the school year ahead by easing them back into learning at WonderWorks! We’ve got tons of interactive activities that challenge the mind and spark the imagination. Guests of all ages will head home thinking about space, weather, science, and much more.” said Paige Perry, education sales manager at WonderWorks Destiny.

The fun won’t stop there; The Great New York State Fair is happening in Syracuse, NY from August 21 through September 2, 2024, and WonderWorks is celebrating with another sweet ticket deal. Those who show their State Fair ticket or receipt at admissions can take advantage of $20 plus tax VIP Combo tickets during the fair. Come enjoy some indoor fun after experiencing all that the fair has to offer.

With the new school year on the horizon, teachers will want to consider a class field trip to WonderWorks Destiny. The interactive exhibits give teachers the ability to bring their classroom learning to life, making it fun and memorable to get their students excited about science, technology, engineering, art, and mathematic (STEAM) topics. Learning and fun go hand-in-hand at WonderWorks Destiny, and school groups can get discounted rates, scavenger hunts, and more with advanced reservations.
