Looking to Make Some End of Summer Memories? WonderWorks Orlando Hosts Back-to-School Bash for Florida Residents.

ORLANDO, Florida – (July 22, 2024) – With the new school year just around the corner, many families will be looking for fun ways to finish the summer and create some last-minute memories. One event local families won't want to miss is the Back 2 School Bash hosted by WonderWorks Orlando. This exciting celebration will be held August 2-11, 2024, at the upside-down house on International Drive. During this event, Florida residents can snag a special admission rate of only $22, plus tax, per person. End your summer on a high note and have some discounted fun!

"Learning and fun go hand in hand here at WonderWorks, so it's the perfect place to soak up the last days of summer and transition back into learning for the school year. We invite all our locals to enjoy this year's Back 2 School Bash!" said Brian Wayne, general manager at WonderWorks Orlando.

The Back 2 School Bash will give guests a chance to let their imaginations run wild as the kids ease back into learning mode. Discounted event tickets include access to all of the interactive exhibits and attractions inside WonderWorks. There are three floors of fun activities for all ages. Guests can explore the exhibits and hands-on experiences at their own pace, including a suspended ropes course, laser tag, educational activities, physical challenges, an illusion art gallery, and more.

All Florida residents can purchase tickets to this event online when it kicks off on August 2, 2024. A unique link will be posted on the WonderWorks social media channels once the event begins. After purchasing online, attendees must then show their state ID along with their ticket confirmation at the admissions counter during the event dates to redeem. The Back 2 School Bash is a great opportunity to enjoy a day of indoor fun away from the heat and afternoon thunderstorms, all while saving money. You won't want to miss out.

Groups of 15 or more can save year-round with WonderWorks' special group rates. The upside-down house is an excellent destination for summer camps, sports teams, scouts, bus tours, and groups of all types. Looking ahead at the upcoming school year, it also proves to be the perfect spot for field trips, with plenty of educational elements and add-ons to enhance one's learning experience. WonderWorks also hosts special Homeschool Days events during the school year for families who homeschool. The next event is set to kick off in September. For more information about group rates, visit the site at: <https://www.wonderworksonline.com/orlando/group-outing/>.

“Is your group looking for something fun and unique to do? Set up a visit to the upside-down house!” said Davianys Ramos, sales manager at WonderWorks Orlando. “We've got tons of team-building activities, group rates, lunch options, and everything else you need for an epic outing.”
