

British Columbia's Indigenous Small Business Resources

INDIGENOUS ENTREPRENEURSHIP: IT'S ROOTED IN HISTORY

Indigenous peoples have a long history of entrepreneurship in British Columbia. From thriving fisheries to international trade economies, the entrepreneurial spirit has existed for centuries.

In recent history, Indigenous owned and operated businesses are growing and succeeding in all sectors of the economy, from technology and agrifoods to forestry and Indigenous cultural tourism.

This handout provides information on small business startup and growth support services tailored to Indigenous entrepreneurs and small business owner needs. The list of services is not exhaustive, but it identifies resources to support all aspects of business startup and growth.

"With the assistance and support of Coast Opportunity Funds, Wei Wai Kum First Nation was able to expand our Community owned tourism business, the Thunderbird RV Park & Cottage Resort, by adding 4 luxury cottages available for daily or weekly rentals and also adding an additional 18 full serviced RV sites.

These jobs are especially valued by Wei Wai Kum members as they enable people to work and live on the reserve, with ready access to extended family and all of the social supports this provides, and to be part of a workplace where Wei Wai Kum culture is so visibly present and celebrated."
