2. Patrons should familiarize themselves with Little Creek Casino Resort House Rules before placing a bet. By placing a bet, the patron acknowledges reading and understanding the ‘House Rules’.
3. Little Creek Casino Resort reserves the right to refuse any wager, delete, or limit selections before the acceptance of any wagers.
4. Please check your tickets for accuracy before leaving the betting window/kiosk. Leaving the window/kiosk with the ticket is deemed an acceptance of the wager by both parties.
 - a. Tickets will not be altered or voided before the start of an event except at the discretion of management and with the approval of both parties.
 - b. Once both parties accept a wager, tickets will not be altered or voided after an event officially begins or the odds have changed
 - c. Wagers may only be rescinded with the approval of the Tribal Gaming Agency if the wager is believed to be compromised.
 - d. Tickets will expire 180 days after the event.
5. Management will try to ensure the odds displayed on their screen are accurate.
 - a. Computer generated point spreads / odds shall determine winners, losers, ties and payouts.
 - b. For the protection of all concerned, management will retain a record of all point spreads and odds in case of technical or human error.

- c. All statistical and other data displayed on the sports book screens, wall boards, scratch sheets, etc. are for the convenience of our patrons only. Maximum care is taken to ensure the accuracy of such information.
- d. Wagers may be accepted at other than the posted odds, please check your ticket before leaving the window.
6. Little Creek Casino Resort will determine minimum and maximum wagers on all sports events. Minimum wagers will be $1 and Maximum wagers will need the approval of management for any wager of $2,000. Kiosk will have a maximum wager of $500
7. Little Creek Casino Resort reserves the right to void or amend a wager that results from an obvious error with a misstated line or misstated odds of a wager or where the terms on a wager are materially different from those available to the general market when the wager is placed. This applies to individual wagers or wagers that are part of a multi-event, such as a parlay.
8. Little Creek Casino Resort reserves the right to add, change or delete the Sports Book payout ratio limits.

12. Little Creek Casino Resort reserves the right to add, change or delete the Sports Book House Wagering Rules, subject to regulatory approval.

ACTION/OFFICIAL RESULTS

1. Basketball, Baseball, Boxing, Hockey, Mixed Martial Arts and Soccer must be played on the date scheduled for "action." If a game is postponed and/or rescheduled to a later date, said game will automatically constitute "no action", unless otherwise specified. Game start or conclusion times delayed or extended beyond midnight are not recognized as date changes for wagering purposes. Boxing/MMA fights must have both fighters listed on the ticket start the fight for the fight to be "action". Substitutions due to injury, weight miss or other events constitute "no action"
2. Football, if a game is postponed and/or rescheduled to a later date, said game will automatically constitute "no action/void", unless played in the same weekly schedule (Thursday - Wednesday local stadium time).
3. Unless otherwise specified, if a match is suspended/postponed and is completed within 48 hours of the previous scheduled start time, then all bets will be considered "action" and settled with the final result. If the match is not completed within 48 hours, then all undecided bets are considered "no action/void." unless stipulated otherwise on guest wagering information sheets or odds display.
4. Management is not responsible for location changes. If a game or event is moved from original location, all wagers are "No Action".
5. For wagering purposes, unless otherwise stipulated on matches are official after: All - considered "Action", once the opening bell/buzzer sounds, regardless of the scheduled length of the bout. All fighting "pick the round" proposition wagers are "No Action" (Refunded) if the scheduled length of the bout is changed from the distance displayed by the sports book, or on guest wagering information sheets or odds display.
6. All results are deemed final once the official agency (official sports body, commission, sanctioning organization, etc.) has posted the result. Subsequent inquiries and changes to official result will not affect the bet settlement after one hour or more of the conclusion of the event.
7. For betting purposes, the winner of an event or game will be determined on the date and approximate time of the events conclusion according to house wagering rules. Little Creek Casino Resort will not recognize results changes after the game has been certified by the integrity monitoring service.

8. Minimum play requirements for betting purposes (unless stipulated otherwise on guest wagering information sheets or odds display, games are official after):

a. Baseball (MLB, NCAA) – In all nine-inning scheduled games, winners and losers are official after nine innings of play, unless the home team is leading after eight and one-half innings. Postponed or Suspended games must go at least five innings or four and one-half innings if the home team is ahead (also applies to seven-inning scheduled games). If a game goes past five innings and is subsequently Postponed or Suspended, the winner is determined by the score after the last full inning of play; except where the home team scores to tie or take the lead in the bottom half of the inning in which the game is Postponed or Suspended, the runs do count.

b. Basketball (NBA) – 43 minutes of play.

c. Basketball (NCAA) – 35 minutes of play.

d. Basketball (WNBA) – 35 minutes of play.

e. Fighting, Mixed Martial Arts (ABC, MMA, UFC) – When bell (buzzer etc.) is sounded signifying the start of the opening round the bout is considered official for betting purposes, regardless of the scheduled length.

f. Football (Professional/College)- 55 minutes of play.

g. Hockey (Professional/College)- 55 minutes of play.

h. Soccer (CONCAFF, UEFA, FIGC, IFF, EFL, CONMEBOL, FIFA, USL, USSF, USL, UWS, Premier League) - 90 minutes of play.

i. All contests not listed above that involve a predetermined length of play, time limit, distance, etc. that are not reached, yet the event is called final by event officials with a winner declared, shall also be considered official for betting purposes, unless stipulated otherwise on guest wagering information sheets or odds display.

j. All other contests not listed above that involve a scheduled length of play or time limit must play to their conclusion or have five minutes or less than 10% of scheduled playing time remaining when the contest concludes to be considered official for betting purposes.

k. All halftime (1st half and 2nd half), quarter, period, set, etc. wagering propositions must be played to the conclusion of that portion of play to be considered "Action", and are independent of the game and other propositions. Soccer 1st half or 2nd half wagers must go at least 45 minutes to be considered "Action".

9. For all sports except Baseball, for Proposition bets the player must play for "Action" or all bets for that player will be considered "no action/void." For Baseball, the player must start for "Action" or all bets for that player will be considered "no action/void."

10. Futures wagers will be graded within one calendar year of the official league start date, in delayed future wagers including but not limited to division/conference/finals etc., the date change will be considered action if completed within one calendar year of the official league start date.

11. Both sides must start in any two-way matchup propositions

12. Any straight wager deemed "No Action" will be refunded. If a parlay's leg is deemed "No Action", the parlay will reduce by one selection (i.e., 4-Team Parlay becomes a 3-Team Parlay, 2- Team Parlay becomes a straight wager). If a teaser has a leg that is deemed "no action", the teaser will reduce by one selection (i.e., 4 team teaser becomes a 3-team teaser, 2- team teaser becomes a refund).

13. For player proposition bets to be considered "Action", the following criteria must be met:

a. BASEBALL - Player must start

b. BASKETBALL - Player must play

c. FOOTBALL - Player must play

d. HOCKEY - Player must play

e. SOCCER - Player must start. Additionally extra time and penalty kick shootout statistics are not included for proposition wagers.

14. For season long player statistical leader and award futures players must play in at least one regular season game for "Action".

15. In the event of a tie or a "dead heat" the bet amount is divided by the number of players that are tied for that placing while the original odds stand. An example of this would be a $100 wager placed on Golfer A at +200 to finish in the Top 5. If Golfer A ties with 4 other Golfers for 5th place the wager will be calculated by dividing the $100 stake 5 times per Rules. Calculation: $$20 \times +200 = \60

AUTO RACING

1. All future book wagers on Auto Racing are "Action" once Driver begins event unless stipulated otherwise on guest wagering information sheets or odds display.

2. All participants in event match-up or Driver propositions must start the event, or that proposition is "No Action" and wager will be refunded.

3. In driver matchup propositions, all drivers involved in any matchup must start or the wager is deemed "no action."

4. The winner of driver matchups and race propositions will be based on the official finish order.

5. All auto race wagers are on drivers only; not on a team or car, unless stipulated otherwise on guest wagering information sheets or odds display.

6. Auto race results will be considered official for wagering purposes one hour after the events conclusion.

Auto series recognized results and statistics will determine all winners and losers. Subsequent changes will not be recognized.

7. The field includes any driver who is not listed.

8. If a specific event is suspended/postponed then bets will be considered "action" provided that the event is completed within 72 hours.

BASEBALL

1. Baseball wagers are accepted in the following manner:

All bets are "Action", team against team regardless of starting pitcher. There are no listed pitchers.

2. On baseball first inning wagers, the first inning must be completed for "Action".

3. When wagering on "Totals" (over/under), extra innings, etc., are counted in the final score, unless stipulated otherwise.

4. All settlements are based on the results and statistics provided by the relevant league's governing body (e.g. Major League Baseball).

5. Called/suspended games must go at least five innings, or four and one-half innings if the home team is ahead.

6. If a game goes past five innings and is called/suspended, the winner is determined by the score after the last full inning of play. Except where the home team scores to tie or take the lead in the bottom half of the inning in which the game is Postponed or Suspended; the runs do count.

7. When wagering on baseball "Totals" or "Run lines," the game must go at least the regulation nine innings (eight and one-half if the home team is ahead) for a scheduled nine-inning game and seven innings (six and one-half if the home team is ahead) for a scheduled seven-inning game.

8. For all non-US professional leagues and college baseball and softball, wagers are "Action" regardless of starting pitchers. "Totals" and "Run line" wagers have the same game length rules as professional US baseball. The bottom team listed, does not necessarily bat last.

9. If on the day of the events conclusion no winner is determined, minimum play requirements are not met or if "No contest" is declared, all wagers on that event will be considered "No Action" for betting purposes and wager will be refunded.

10. For the World Baseball Classic or any other games that are called due to the mercy rule, "totals" and "run lines" are considered "action".

11. Unless odds are quoted for a tie, any market where the result is a "Wagering Tie" will be considered "No Action" for betting purposes and wagers will be refunded.

12. For pro baseball regular season wins wagers, please check customer sheets for the minimum required games to be played for "Action".

13. In the event that the All Star Game does not go into extra innings but is decided by a Home Run Derby the Winner of the Derby will have one(1) run added to its score and this run will count towards the game total. Example of the Home Run Derby scenario: If the score is 3-3 after nine (9) innings the team winning the Home Run Derby will win the game 4-3.

BASKETBALL

1. All games must be completed for full game basketball wagers to be "Action". NBA must play at least 43 minutes to be considered "Completed". College, WNBA and International must play at least 35 minutes to be considered, "Completed".

2. All first and second half, and quarter wagers must be played to their conclusion to be considered "Action".

3. Any part-game wagers are action upon completion of the specified period. For example, a 1st quarter wager in a game postponed in the 2nd half is "Action"; whereas a 3rd quarter wager in a game postponed during the 3rd quarter is "No Action" and wagers will be refunded.

4. Overtime is counted in the final score, unless otherwise specified. Overtime will count in halftime wagers, unless otherwise specified. Overtime will not count in any bets involving specific quarters.

5. Unless odds are quoted for a tie, any market where the result is a "Wagering Tie" will be considered "No Action" and wagers will be refunded.

6. If a match starts on the scheduled start date and is not completed within 24 hours it will be deemed "No Action".

7. For 2nd Half Basketball Bets - For any bets in these markets, unless otherwise stated, Overtime will be counted when determining how the bets are settled.

8. For pre-season, summer league and pro basketball All-Star games, games are "action" if the league determines a result, no matter what the rule changes are pertaining to the individual games.

9. For pro basketball regular season wins wagers, please check customer sheets for the minimum required games to be played for "Action".

BOXING/MMA

1. In "Fighting", a full round is defined as one in which the bell (buzzer, etc.) has sounded signifying the conclusion of such round. If a fighter is counted out or the bout officially stopped before the bell, that round is not considered a full round for wagering purposes. If a half round (one minute and thirty seconds of a three minute round, 2 minute 30 seconds of a five minute round) or other specified time is listed, the official time of the bouts conclusion, as determined by ring officials, will determine proposition winners and losers.

2. If a boxing or mixed martial arts fight ends at 1 minute 30 seconds of a 3:00 minute round or 2 minute 30 seconds of a 5:00 minute round, whereas the fight lands exactly on the listed total, over/under wagers will be considered "No Action" for betting purposes and wagers will be refunded.

3. On fighting and mixed martial arts "K.O." proposition wagers, "K.O." includes knockout, technical knockout, disqualification, or any other stoppage.

4. For pick the knockout round wagers, if a fighter doesn't answer the bell for the next round, the previous round will be declared the winner. Knockout includes a technical knockout and disqualifications.

5. On fighting and mixed martial arts "Decision" proposition wagers, "Decision" means the fight must go to the judge's scorecards to determine a winner, including a technical decision.

6. On fighting and mixed martial arts "Draw" proposition wagers; "Draw" means fight must go to the judges' scorecards and be declared a draw; including a technical draw. If a draw occurs, wagers on who will win are "no action".

7. All straight win wagers will have "action" regardless of any changes in weight class, scheduled length of the bout, or championship sanction unless otherwise stipulated. All round, knock-out ("K.O.") or decision proposition wagers are "no action" if the scheduled length of the bout is changed.

8. All wagers will be settled according to the official result of the governing body immediately as declared by the ring announcer at the end of the fight.

9. For settlement, if the match is interrupted in between rounds, e.g. retirement before the start of a round, disqualification, failure to answer the bell, the fight will be deemed to have finished at the end of the previous round.

10. In the event of a fight being declared a "No-Contest", all wagers (including totals) on that fight will be considered "No-Action", regardless of when the fight is stopped and wagers will be refunded.

12. For pro baseball regular season wins wagers, please check customer sheets for the minimum required games to be played for "Action".

13. In the event that the All Star Game does not go into extra innings but is decided by a Home Run Derby the Winner of the Derby will have one(1) run added to its score and this run will count towards the game total. Example of the Home Run Derby scenario: If the score is 3-3 after nine (9) innings the team winning the Home Run Derby will win the game 4-3.

FOOTBALL

1. Games must be played on the date scheduled for "Action." If a game is postponed or rescheduled to a later date, it will be deemed "No Action".

2. Wagers for all full-game markets stand providing at least 55 minutes of play have taken place and an official result is declared, unless otherwise specified.

3. Overtime counts unless otherwise specified. Overtime will count in halftime wagers, unless otherwise specified. Overtime will not count in any bets involving specific quarters.

4. Wagers for all partial-game markets are action upon completing the specified period. For example, a 1st half wager is action if a game is postponed in the 2nd half; whereas a 4th quarter wager is void if the game is postponed in the 4th quarter.

5. Unless odds are quoted for a tie, any market where the result is a "Wagering Tie" will be considered "No Action" and wagers will be refunded.

6. For 2nd Half Football Bets - For any bets in these markets, unless otherwise stated, Overtime will be counted when determining how the bets are settled.

7. Futures/Season Bets - NFL regular season win totals, and matchups are based on teams completing all 17 regular season games, and for CFL all 18 regular season games, College Football teams must play all scheduled regular season games for action.

8. When wagering on football regular season win totals (college and professional), teams must play the exact number of games on their schedule for "Action". If there is a change in opponent, if the team plays the originally scheduled number of games, those bets are still declared as "Action". For college football regular season wins, conference championship and bowl games do not count towards the win total.

9. For pro football championship game proposition wagers, please consult the customer sheets for all rules that govern specific bets.

GOLF

1. All bets referring to Tournament Performance (Winner, Place, Group Betting, Top Nationality, Individual Final Position, etc.) will be deemed valid as long as 36 holes have been completed by the eligible players, and an official result has been declared by the tournament organization.

2. If a golfer withdraws before the start of a tournament all futures bets will be considered "No Action" and wagers will be refunded.

3. Wagers on players who start tournaments but either withdraw or are disqualified will be graded as losing wagers.

4. Most holes played wins golf matchups. If holes are equal, then low score wins.

5. If both golfers listed in a "Head to Head" match-up are involved in a 3-way (or more) playoff, either golfer involved must win the playoff to win that matchup, or proposition is "No Action" and wager will be refunded.

6. In "Head to Heads" based on the best finishing position in the tournament, if one player misses the cut then the other player will be settled as the winner. If both participants fail to make "The Cut" the player with the lowest score at "The Cut" will be resulted as the winner.

7. In the event of a tie or a "dead heat" the bet amount is reduced by the number of players tied for that placing while the original odds stand. An example of this would be a $100 wager placed on Golfer A at +200 to finish in the Top 5. If Golfer A ties with 4 other Golfers for 5th place the wager will be calculated by dividing the $100 stake 5 times per Rules. Calculation: $$20 \times +200 = \60

8. Tournament Group Betting: Winning bets must select the player who achieves the highest tournament placing from a selected group. In the event of any player in the group not teeing off, bets will be refunded. Players missing the cut will be eliminated unless all of the players in the group miss the cut. If this occurs the lowest score at that stage will determine the winner. Dead heat rules apply if two or more players are tied at the end of the tournament, unless the result is determined by a playoff in which case the playoff winner is considered the group winner.

Round Leader Markets: Bets will be settled after the specific round has been completed. Dead heat rules apply.

HOCKEY

1. For wagers that specify "Including Overtime", if a shootout in Hockey occurs, the winner of the shootout will have one (1) goal added to its score and this goal will count towards the game total regardless of the number of shootout goals scored. For player yes-no goal scoring props, shootout goals do not count.

2. Wagers for all full-game markets stand providing at least 55 minutes of play have taken place and an official result is declared, unless otherwise specified.

3. If overtime includes another period, the first team to score will win the game. This overtime goal scored will be included in the puck line wagers and total wagers only specified as "including overtime".

4. Wagers for all partial game markets are action upon completing the specified period. For example, a 1st period wager is action if a game is postponed in the 3rd period; whereas a 2nd period wager is void if the game is postponed in the 2nd period.

5. Unless odds are quoted for a tie, any market where the result is a "Wagering Tie" will be considered "No Action" and wagers will be refunded. Futures/Season Bets – All bets stand on Outright, Conference and Divisional betting regardless of player movement, team movement, and team name change or season length.

6. Hockey player proposition wagers do include overtime, but not shootouts unless otherwise specified.

7. For pro hockey regular season point wagers, please check customer sheets for the minimum required games to be played for "Action".

SOCCER

1. For all goal line, money line, and total wagers, the score at the end of 90 minutes, plus injury time minutes, will determine winning and losing tickets; extra time and penalty kick shootouts do not count, unless otherwise specified. For all first half goal line, money line and total wagers, the score at the end of 45 minutes, plus injury minutes, will determine winning and losing wagers. If a total/spreads ties, those wagers would be "No Action" and for betting purposes and wagers will be refunded.

2. A Wager on a team "To Advance" will include the result of extra time and penalty kick shootouts to determine the winner of the match.

3. Wagers will be decided based on the score at the referee's final whistle at the match's natural conclusion, whether the match is decided in regular time, extra time or in a penalty shootout.

4. For 3-way wagering propositions: sides must win, lose or draw (each is a separate wagering interest). If the wagering offer on a match includes the draw as a third option and the match ends in a draw, wagers on the draw will be paid, while wagers on both teams will be considered losing propositions. Three Way wagers will be decided based on the score after 90 minutes of play and any added injury time.

5. Official league data will determine all statistical wagering propositions, player proposition wagers and future book wagers. This may take up to one hour after the match to be settled.

GOLF

1. All bets referring to Tournament Performance (Winner, Place, Group Betting, Top Nationality, Individual Final Position, etc.) will be deemed valid as long as 36 holes have been completed by the eligible players, and an official result has been declared by the tournament organization.
 2. If a golfer withdraws before the start of a tournament all futures bets will be considered "No Action" and wagers will be refunded.
 3. Wagers on players who start tournaments but either withdraw or are disqualified will be graded as losing wagers.
 4. Most holes played wins golf matchups. If holes are equal, then low score wins.
 5. If both golfers listed in a "Head to Head" match-up are involved in a 3-way (or more) playoff, either golfer involved must win the playoff to win that matchup, or proposition is "No Action" and wager will be refunded.
 6. In "Head to Heads" based on the best finishing position in the tournament, if one player misses the cut then the other player will be settled as the winner. If both participants fail to make "The Cut" the player with the lowest score at "The Cut" will be resulted as the winner.
 7. In the event of a tie or a "dead heat" the bet amount is reduced by the number of players tied for that placing while the original odds stand. An example of this would be a $100 wager placed on Golfer A at +200 to finish in the Top 5. If Golfer A ties with 4 other Golfers for 5th place the wager will be calculated by dividing the $100 stake 5 times per Rules. Calculation: $$20 \times +200 = \60
 8. Tournament Group Betting: Winning bets must select the player who achieves the highest tournament placing from a selected group. In the event of any player in the group not teeing off, bets will be refunded. Players missing the cut will be eliminated unless all of the players in the group miss the cut. If this occurs the lowest score at that stage will determine the winner. Dead heat rules apply if two or more players are tied at the end of the tournament, unless the result is determined by a playoff in which case the playoff winner is considered the group winner.
- Round Leader Markets: Bets will be settled after the specific round has been completed. Dead heat rules apply.

TENNIS

1. If there is a walkover, retirement, disqualification, or abandonment at any time after the start of the match, the player progressing to the next round will be deemed the winner. If a match is abandoned before the match has begun, all bets are "no action".
2. A tennis match is deemed to have started with the first serve of the match.
3. All future book wagers on Tennis are "Action" once player begins event unless stipulated otherwise on kiosks or sports book sheets.
4. If a match is suspended after the match has started, all full game wagers are "Action" if completed within 48 hours.
5. For partial-match wagering (e.g., game and set betting), wagers are considered "Action" upon completing the specified period; for example, 1st set wagers are action upon completing the 1st set.
6. All tennis matches are "Action" regardless of a venue change, surface change, court type, or change of scheduling if they are completed.
7. In a Doubles match, all bets will be declared "No Action" for betting purposes and wagers will be refunded, if any of the stated players have been replaced.

OLYMPICS

1. All events will be settled based on the official International Olympic Committee podium results.
2. Wagering on the Championship Medal Counts will be settled following the final event and according to the podium results.

3. If an event is postponed during the Olympics, wagers will stand if the event is completed before the closing ceremony.
4. For an event with a time limit, the full time of the game must expire for a wager to be considered "Action".
5. In head to head match, best time/score is the winner.
6. Medal Winners are considered "Action", when awarded their medal at the podium.
then the other player will be settled as the winner. If both participants fail to make "The Cut" the player with the lowest score at "The Cut" will be resulted as the winner.

IN-PLAY HOUSE RULES

CALCULATING PARLAY PAYOUT

STRAIGHT BETS PAY 10-11 unless posted or specified otherwise on printed media. If a tie in a straight wager occurs, wager is considered "No Action" and money is refunded. All parlays are based on a TRUE ODDS format. This is calculated by multiplying the decimal equivalent of each event by the amount wagered.

-110 meaning $110 to win $100 = return of $210
+140 meaning $100 to win $140 = return of $240

PARLAY ODDS (-110)

- 2 TEAMS 2.64 - 1
- 3 TEAMS 5.95 - 1
- 4 TEAMS 12.28 - 1
- 5 TEAMS 24.35 - 1
- 6 TEAMS 47.41 - 1
- 7 TEAMS 91.42 - 1
- 8 TEAMS 175.44 - 1

Negative odds (odds with minus sign) are converted in following way; multiply the odd value by -1 to get a positive number. Divide 100 with the odd value (for -110 value is 110) and then add 1 to the result. Then multiple the result by 1: (see next page)

Example: $1 + (100/110) = 1.91$

Odds equivalent to one dollar

American odds	Decimal odds
-105	1.952
-110	1.909
-120	1.833
-130	1.769
-140	1.714
-150	1.667

If the odds are positive (odds with a plus sign) the formula is as follows (divide positive odd value with 100 and then add 1 to the result.

Example: $(+110/100)+1 = 2.100$

American odds	Decimal odds
+105	2.050
+110	2.100
+120	2.200
+130	2.300
+140	2.400
+150	2.500

A maximum payoff limit of 299-1 is paid on parlays "Off The Board". If a tie occurs or "No Action," parlay is reduced to next lower number of parlays. Acceptance of all parlays is at the discretion of management.
